Madison-based E.M. Wasylik Associates Celebrates 20th Anniversary

Madison, WI – December 6, 2018 – E.M. Wasylik Associates (EMW), established in 1998, has reached the milestone of its 20th year of business. EMW and its team are experts in sales, operations, marketing and finance, working with companies around the world that are emerging and expanding globally.

Ed Wasylik and Ken Wasylik, two CPAs with an eye for global business, are the founders of the company. They established the firm to assist and support businesses as they look to successfully navigate the intricacies of international business. EMW started with its first office in the Madison area, and has since expanded to include additional offices in Florida, South America (Chile), and Istanbul.

Ken Wasylik, Managing Director of EMW, explained the significance of the twenty-year mark. “Over the past two decades EMW has grown by constantly expanding our capabilities to serve our wide-ranging clients expanding globally. And most of all I am fortunate that my father, Ed, now 96 years young, is able to celebrate this major accomplishment with the firm that bears his name.”
